A very pretty wedding transpired in the parlors of the Hotel Irving at 8:30 o'clock last evening. Rev. G. E. Rydquist, pastor of the First Lutheran church, of this city, performing the happy ceremony. The bride was Miss Sophie Lanberg, the popular proprietress of the Irving Grill, the happy groom being Mr. Emil Bjork, the well known engineer of the Olsen logging plant at Deep River. The parlor was daintily shrouded in a mass of ferns and roses and every point in the room was engaged with a cluster of seasonable bloom of every hue and scent. The wedding was followed by a lovely supper and a pleasant social, in which the guests took part delightedly. Mr. and Mrs. Bjork were the recipients of many beautiful and substantial gifts. The ladies in the hotel, with whom the pretty bride is a great favorite, to wit, Mrs. Dr. Kinney, Mrs. M. C. Wood, Mrs. Dean, Mrs. Rouslo and Mrs. Olsen, contributed in many ways, to the pleasures of the event.

A delightful afternoon tea was given on Friday last by Mrs. M. C. Flavel and the Misses Flavel, at their beautiful home on Eighth street, at which Signor Auletto and his violin and mandolin were in conspicuous and most diverting evidence, his music, on both instruments, being distinct features of the gathering. The invitations for the pleasant affair included the following well known ladies: Mesdames Chessman, Finch, Spittle, Dyer, Brink, Calender, Ridehalgh, Miller, Higgins, Warren, W. E. Tallant N. Tallant, Gar-ruthers, Badolett, and Heilborn; and the Misses Adair, Higgins, Elmore, Reed, Garner, Hobson, Heilborn, Fredrickson, Reid and Tallant Wood.

At the First Presbyterian church last night at 8 o'clock Miss Bertha Elizabeth Hobson was united in marriage to C. H. Halderman. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of guests by Rev. W. S. Gilbert. Promptly at 8 o'clock to the strains of the wedding march the bridal party entered the church and took their stand at the chancel rail. The bride was attired in a white silk, embroidered net gown, made princess style, wearing a veil and carrying a bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Mary Barry of Portland, as maid of honor, wore a costume of pink silk mull, and carried pink carnations. The bride's maids were dressed in white mull and carried carnations. They were, Miss Bessie Reed, Miss Maja Fredrickson and Miss Elmore. Constance Fulton, in a pink frock, was the flower girl. Ross Trullinger acted as best man. The ushers were Frank Woodfield, John Allen, George Ohler, and Dr. Paul Trullinger. After the ceremony a reception was given to the bridal couple at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fulton, by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fulton, and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Fulton. The house was beautifully decorated in the season's offerings. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. G. C. Fulton gave a supper for the members of the Halderman-Hobson bridal party on last Thursday evening. The centerpiece on the table was a miniature driveway of rice, edged with amilax with a tiny automobile containing two cupids in it. Pink forget-me-nots formed the floral decorations and the place cards were miniature shoes and slippers of bisque filled with rice and they were attached to the shandaler with streamers of pink ribbon. Those present were Miss Bertha Hobson, Mr. Charles Halderman, Miss Bessie Reed, Miss Mary Barry, Miss Elsie Elmore, Miss Hannah Adair, Miss Maja Fredrickson, Ross Trullinger, John Allen, George Ohler, Dr. Paul Trullinger and Frank Woodfield.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church gave a reception for the new pastor and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Rarick on Tuesday evening. The reception rooms of the church were decorated with the league colors of white and red. Mr. J. E. Higgins gave the welcoming address and those who assisted in the musical program were Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, Mrs. Julian, Miss Thompson, Mr. G. Ziegler, Mr. Wooten, Dr. Ball, Miss Faye Ball, Mrs. E. M. Baker, Miss Nellie Busby and Alfred Schroeder.

On Monday evening Miss Margaret Taylor entertained about fifty of her friends at her home on Irving avenue. Euchre formed the principal amusement of the evening. Miss Nichols of Portland and Mrs. Mr. Clyde Shields were the fortunate prize winners. The house was beautiful decorated with roses and evergreens. The young ladies who assisted in entertaining were Miss Florence Kendall and Helen Taylor.

Miss Elsie Elmore gave a luncheon on Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock in honor of Miss Bertha Hobson. The table decorations were of pink roses and orange place cards artistically arranged. Those present were Miss Hobson, Mrs. George Warren, Miss Maja Fredrickson, Miss Mary Barry, Miss Bessie Reed, Mrs. Nathaniel Tallant and Miss Floretta Elmore.
